

About the Artist

Fiel Patricio is an artist based in York, Pennsylvania. She has returned to exhibiting locally and nationally with great success after a long absence. She creates abstract and experimental mixed media works using water-based mediums and integrating collage, linocuts, woodcuts and printmaking into her art.

She has studied under Othmar Carli, George M. Clark and Claire Giblin.

She has participated in several juried, group and solo exhibitions. The most recent ones have been at the Philadelphia Water Color Society 's 111th Anniversary International Exhibition of Works on Paper in Wallingford, PA (2011), the Brooklyn Waterfront Artists Coalition's First Annual Juried Show, "Wide Open" in New York (2010) and the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society's 31st International Juried Exhibition at The Crary Art Gallery in Warren, PA (2010). In 2011, she was also juried at the Hanover Area Art Guild in Hanover, PA and received an Award of Excellence for her work 'Centripetal Force'. In 2009, she was also a recipient of The Rottler Award for Excellence in the Visual Arts presented by the York Art Association.

She attained her signature status into the Philadelphia Water Color Society in 2011 and into the Baltimore Watercolor Society in 2010 of which she is both a member. Other memberships include Pennsylvania Watercolor Society, National Collage Society, Susquehanna Art Museum, York Art Association and York County Camera Club.

She is currently represented by Garth Gallery in Columbia, PA.

Fiel is also a published photographer whose works have been included in the 4th Edition of Schmap New York Guide and were also released for the iPhone® and iPod Touch® in 2008.

Her philosophy in life as well as in art is to "Be an advocate for graceful simplicity."
